Festival de la Gastronomie Française Mom Tri's Boathouse 12 – 27 January 2008

Mom Tri's Boathouse, located directly on beautiful Kata Beach in Phuket, will host the annual "Quinzaine de la Gastronomie Française", an extravaganza of French cuisine from 12 until 27 January 2008. During these fifteen days, inhabitants and visitors of Phuket have the rare opportunity to sample exceptional French cuisine presented by Guest Chef Maître-Cuisinier de France, Jean Noël Lumineau in collaboration with Mom Tri's Boathouse Executive Chef Tummanoon Punchun.

Chef Jean Noël heads the restaurant of Château-Hôtel Le Prieuré in Anjou, one of the Châteaux of the noted Grand Etapes Françaises group. Known as the Garden of France, the cuisine of the Anjou area features vegetables and herbs in abundance in combination with fresh-water fish from the Loire. For more than 25 years Jean Noël has offered cuisine with a traditional quality and inventive use of the natural, intense flavours of the best local produce in season.

Tummanoon Punchun joined the Boathouse in 1988 and became Executive Chef of the Boathouse Wine & Grill in 1990. He gained his skills in French Cuisine under the guidance of the Chefs at the Michelin-starred five Châteaux of the Grand Etapes Françaises. Besides holding weekend Thai cooking workshops at Mom Tri's Boathouse, he frequently presents workshops for Chefs around the world.

During the festival there is a choice of three alternating gourmet menus using the freshest ingredients cooked to perfection by Chef Jean Noël. The tantalising appetizers, main courses and desserts will combine the best that French Cuisine and Thai produce have to offer. Every evening there will be a four-course dégustation menu, with each course accompanied by a superb French wine, especially chosen by Boathouse's Wine Director, Georges Ciret to perfectly complement the flavours of the gourmet dishes.

The Boathouse Wine & Grill à la carte menu will remain available throughout the Festival.
